

I am against expanding the ability of companies to own a larger share of media outlets. We do not need media conglomerates that have vast control of America's newspapers and air waves. I urge you not to approve any expansion to the current rules.